Baltimore Democratic Nominations,

RATIFIED BY THE MARION COUNTY CONVENTION. The Democratic Convention of Marion county, which assembled in Indianapolis on Saturday last, was the largest County Convention that has been held in this city for several years, and was composed of several hundreds, mainly farmers and mechanics, from every township in the county. At the conclusion of its deliberations, and after the nomination of a ticket, the following resolutions, offered by one of the delegates, N. Bolton, Esq., ratifying the Dantmore nominations, were unanimously adopted, to-wit: [See resolutions in another part of this paper.]

THE NOMINATIONS .- We place at the head of our columns to-day, the nominees of the Democratic National Convention, and also of our county. The and anxious for the fight, we have reason to know. We intend to be fully heard from in the coming contest, mark that, boys!

last Monday, on the reception of the nominations. But as the whigs are confident that they are again to be defeated, they pretended not to take much notice of it. Indeed, they seemed to like it!

In speaking to strike from its pedestal. for ourselves, we hesitate not to declare it the best effort we have ever known him to make. It was almost impossible, at times, to avoid a breach of decorum by rounds of applause; and indeed, in several instances, it manifested itself involuntarily-there could be no resistance. We hope the address will be published, that the world at large, as well as the fraternity, may read it. It may lose some of its impressiveness on paper; but those who heard it, we are convinced, will never forget it.

John Quincy Adams.

On the 24th, Ex-Governor Wallace delivered an Eulogy on the character of the distinguished Statesman whose name heads this notice, to a large and respectable audience. To appreciate the address, it should have been heard; as no short criticism could do it justice. It was an effort worthy of the orator and the distinguished person who was the subject. The Governor was more than usually interested; and the address itself showed that he had bestowed no small amount of labor in collating and preparing it. We sincerely hope that measures will be taken to have it published, embracing, as it does, a complete synopsis of the history of the remarkable man whose decease called it forth. We have read several on the same subject, but none that we think equals this.

SEMI-WEEKLY. - The present number closes the third volume of the Semi-Weekly Sentinel. For the patronage bestowed upon it, far exceeding our expectations, we return our sincere thanks. This liberal patronage so necessary for the support of such a paper, and its extended circulation, convinces us that our endeavors to make an acceptable sheet, are appreciated. We hope that its present increase, will continue; and on our part, we will use our best endeavors to make it more valuable to the reader and the merchant. It is now an excellent time to commence new subscriptions, or to renew old ones.

THE COON SKINNER .- We shall issue the first number on Saturday, the 3d of June. Our preparations will be entirely completed to give spice to it, by the time we can get through the proceedings of the Baltimore Convention, which we not only desire to give, but to accommodate the hundreds who have made the request. Nor do we care to commence the fight regularly till the enemy is in sight. Then, look out!

Interesting from Mexico.

We have received the following bulletin by telegraph from New Orleans. We are happy to hear that a quorum has at length been formed at Queretaro. The speculations about peace are uncertain. The subsequent accounts are contradictory and irreconcilable. That a revolution should have been accomplished by Almonte and his two associates upon the principle of a prosecution of the war against the Americans, is directly at points with the idea of making Herrera, the friend of peace, the President of Congress. Is it improbable that the two accounts have been confounded together, and that a revolution may have been attempted by Almonte, Bustamente, and Parades, at San Luis de Potosi, whilst the signs of peace are appearing at Queretaro ? These accounts reached us by the lightning's wing vesterday. We understand that no official accounts have lately been received from our commissioners in Mexico. Of course, the following communication from Washington to the New York Journal of Commerce is incorrect:

"ANOTHER IMPORTANT RUMOR !- NO TREATY !-A despatch was received at the State Department on Friday last, from Mr. Sevier, in which he speaks very discouragingly as to the prospect of obtaining a ratification of the treaty. There is no doubt at all that such a letter has been received. Of course, Mr. S. does not speak positively; for he is instructed to leave Mexico as soon as it is ascertained that the treaty cannot be ratified."

We understand that no despatch has been received from Col. Sevier to this effect-indeed, no letter from gents were taken prisoners and shot. him, except the one which announces his arrival in Mexico.

o'clock at night "The people have become weary with suffering the oppression and sport of petty tyranny. This is at least the case with Mexicans; and by the omnipotent exercise of its will, discarding what is called the general government of the nation established at Queretaro, it has prostrated to the earth its treacherous oppressors. At 9 o'clock on the night of this day, without any resistance, it proclaimed the only plan which, in the present circumstances, can save the country, posed him. viz: war, and war without truce or quarter, until an honorable peace is conquered. Such is the programme of this happy revolution, at the head of which are the distinguished generals Almonte, Bustamente, and Parades: to whose voice all who are Mexicans, rather than partisans, will respond. The tocsin of liberty has sounded. At last, sons of Hidalgo and Iturbide, awake. The invisible hand of Providence points out to you the road by which every nation of the globe will occupy its true place. Mexicans! fulfil your destiny." American deserters were continually arriving at Queretaro; during the last three days, twenty presented themselves to the Mexican government and were incorporated into the San Patricio company. The garrison at Queretaro is composed of 820 men of all arms. A wager of $10,000 has been made for and against peace; several deputies are concerned in the bet. A correspondent says that Herrera has been nominated President, and a majority of deputies will vote for him - Union, May 25.
